

Please do not diminish Indiana telephone privacy laws. Since being placed on the no-call list I average maybe one call per month, where as before I received 8 to 12 telemarketer calls per week. I don't have to be concerned as much with phone scams which my eledrly mother was a victim of such a scam and being disabled I don't have as many calls to get to the phone and answer.